

1. Free time- In Religion notebook, write a prayer for a safe, healthy, and fun summer! It should be 4-6 sentences.

Dear God,

Thank you for a wonderful school year. Please watch over us as we travel, swim, and explore.

This summer, I will take time to love and appreciate all of the beautiful things you created. Thank you for creating the lakes and beaches, the mountains and sky, and allowing my family, friends, and I to experience it.

Love,

Me

Decorate/color

5th Grade Memory Booklet Headings

1. Cover
2. Leave blank
3. Science
4. Social Studies
5. Math
6. ELA
7. Reading
8. Spelling
9. Religion
- 10-11. My Class Autographs
12. Computers/Library
13. Gym/Art
14. SEL

15. A Note from My Teacher...

16. Back cover-picture

05-24-22

5th-

14: Daniel

12:Jack McMeel

ELA Notes

Adjectives as Subject Complements- page 66

- * An adjective that follows a linking verb and completes the sentence is called a subject complement (SC)
- * Linking verbs: am, is, are, was, were, become, feel, grow, look, remain, seem, smell, sound, and taste

Linking verb

The T. Rex was powerful.

noun

adjective/subject complement

The T.rex's teeth were sharp with cutting edges.

T. Rex was not necessarily green, as some myths claim.

Exercise 1

1. The Triceratops was huge.
2. Its three horns were gigantic.
3. The horn on its nose was smallest.
4. The creature's body seems bulky.
5. The dinosaur looks clumsy to me.

Exercise 2

Subject complement? (SC) OR Before the Noun (BN)

1. The Triceratops is famous for its horns. SC
2. Triceratops traveled in large groups. BN

3. This massive dinosaur was a herd animal. BN
4. Triceratops usually ate low plants. BN
5. Each one ate an enormous amount of food. BN
6. Their skulls were remarkable for their size and strength. SC

Workbook page 43

Circle the adjective/subject complement.

Highlight the linking verb.

Underline the noun.

The shipwreck was deep under the water.